

Miller Fellow: Preston McGarvey

Faculty Sponsor: Professor Katerina Linos

Project: Borderlines Podcast, European Union Court of Justice Profiles

Preston McGarvey is a second-year JD student at Berkeley Law. He graduated with Highest Distinction from the University of California, Berkeley, in 2022, earning a BA in Political Science with a focus on International Relations. Preston currently serves as a co-leader of Legal Obstacles Veterans Encounter and is actively involved with Military and Veterans at Berkeley Law.

Before attending law school, Preston served six years of active duty in the United States Air Force (2012-2018), attaining the rank of Staff Sergeant and earning Afghanistan Campaign, NATO, and Korean Defense Service Medals for multiple deployments and short-tour assignments. In 2021-22, he worked as an Access to Justice Intern at the Bay Area Legal Aid Richmond office, serving at both domestic violence and housing clinics. This past summer, Preston served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Edward J. Davila of the Northern District of California.

As a Miller Fellow, Preston is assisting Professor Katerina Linos with researching and editing episodes of the ground-breaking Borderlines CJEU podcast series featuring interviews with the Judges and Advocates General of the European Union Court of Justice.
